

SOUND RELIEF 4-DVD SET IN STORES OCTOBER 9th ALL PROFITS TO THE RED CROSS

Due to overwhelming demand, the official Sound Relief 4-DVD set is finally released and in stores tomorrow.

Capturing over nine hours of fantastic footage from the twin city concerts that were simultaneously staged in Melbourne and Sydney on March 14, 2009. From Jet to John Farnham; Barry Gibb to Bliss N Eso; the Finn Family to the Royal Family; the especially reformed Hunters & Collectors, Midnight Oil and Split Enz – indeed all of the artists who travelled from near and far - volunteered their services to do what they do best; perform at these mighty gigs especially organised to raise funds for those whose lives were so tragically affected by fires and floods.

The concerts raised over $8 million for the Red Cross Victorian Bushfire Appeal and the QLD Premier's Disaster Relief Fund and featured performances from the cream of the music industry from Australia and abroad.
