

Spirit of the Spine

A work in progress photography exhibition by Viv Méhes
As nature regenerates, so do the communities along the Fire Spine.

Taggerty Hall

Wednesday 31 March – Tuesday 6 April 2010, 10am–6pm

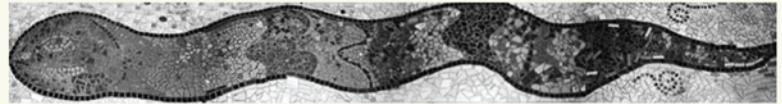

Exhibition launch Wednesday 31 March, 6.30 pm

Taggerty Hall gardens

All welcome

Great stories of recovery and renewal from the Fire Spine of the Golden Serpent

Gold coin donation to the CFA at the door

Launch: Lyn Gunter, former mayor, Shire of Murrindindi

Welcome to Country: Uncle Roy of the Daungurung people

MC: Janet Cribbes, coordinator, Bushfire Community Recovery Service, Centacare Catholic Family Services

Father Joe Caddy, CEO, Centacare Catholic Family Services

Music: Drop of Scotch with Diane Gaylard and Dave the Music Man | The Triangle Steel Pan Band with Rita Seethaler | Out of the Ashes Choir

Also on view will be Wallabies in Peril by Jill Sanguinetti from Granton, and the Marysville Children's Flags.

Project partner: Centacare CFS | cultural partner: Multicultural Arts Victoria | funding: Centacare CFS and Regional Arts Victoria

Thanks to Taggerty Hall Committee, Buxton Zoo Nursery and the CFA women

Front: Spirits of Kinglake, drawn with charcoal from the fire by Callum Parker, aged 7.

Above: The Giant Rainbow Serpent Mosaic by the children of the Triangle.

Texts edited by Jenny Lee. For more information, contact Viv Méhes on 0408 035258 or email spiritspine@optusnet.com.au